

Starved Rock Pet Resort

A Piece of Heaven for Your Best Friend

By Meg Dhamer

On a scale from 1-10, how much do you love your pet? If you said ten and you must board your dog, listen up! Whether it is for a long weekend or for a 3 months stint while you hunt for a new home in Seattle, Susan Crawford's farm along the Illinois River in Utica, Illinois is a holistic resort offering custom vacations, Frisbee fields, a doggie day spa, grooming, taxi service and VIP Suites. Youngsters frolic in the State Park amongst Heron, Beaver, Fox, Eagles and Opossums while canines in their twilight years stroll at a their own pace along the "Wild Flower Walk".

If this sounds wonderful for your pet and your peace of mind, give Susan a call. She 's been raising BullMastiffs and Norwegian Fjord Horses for years and will take excellent care of your best friend too. The only worry you'll have is your pet not wanting to come home!
